

You want to OWN THE ONE?

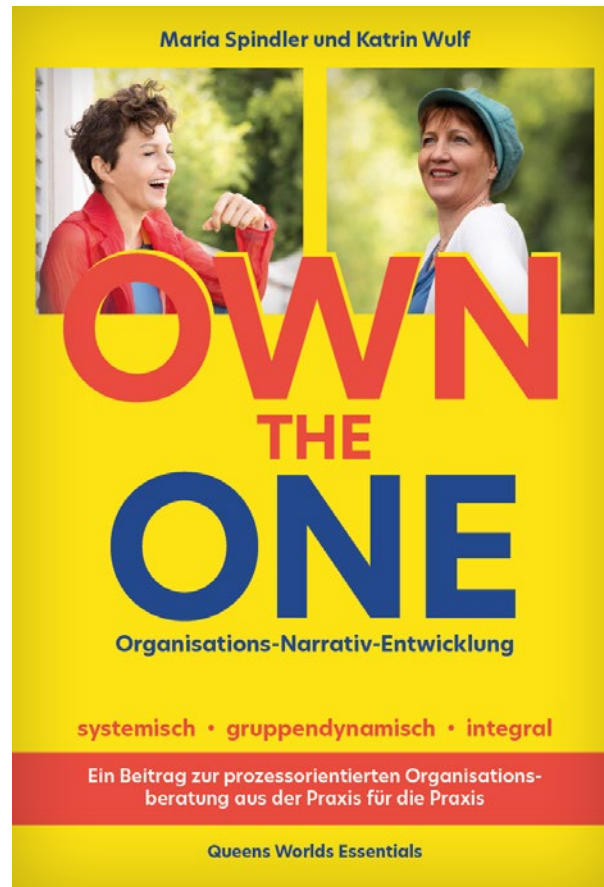

Your Organisational-Narrativ-Evolvement

The narrative is a living and collective story of

- how and who we have become,
- where we are and
- what, how and where we want contribute to the collective future.

We recommend narrative development if you:

- want to interweave diverse developments into an integral oneness.
- desire to see and recognise yourself anew.
- aim for transformation as a whole, as a team or an organisation.
- aspire a process that connects you internally and externally.

www.maria-spindler.at office@maria-spindler.at <https://www.linkedin.com/in/dr-maria-spindler/>

We offer you high-quality and sustainable narrative development:

- to establish the right framework that enables cooperation for renewal.
- to establish the adequate learning and development cultures for the new narrative.
- to focus on the whole as a processual and dynamic integral with everyone.
- to work in a connectable, populist, process-opening and future-oriented way.
- to develop the respective architectures and methods in a customised way.
- to tell the organisational development narrative of the future together in the here and now and for the future to come.